

JOBPARTNERS RANKED IN TOP 10 OF UK'S FASTEST GROWING BUSINESSES

Real Business Hot 100 Lists Jobpartners in Tenth Place

London, May 23rd 2006 - Jobpartners, the European leader of software solutions dedicated to the PRM (People Relationship Management) market, has been ranked the tenth fastest growing private company by Real Business magazine in its Hot 100 list clearly demonstrating again the organisation's huge success and the market's growing demand for effective PRM solutions.

The Real Business Hot 100 is a ranking of the fastest growing privately owned companies in Great Britain using accounts filed at Companies House up to March 7th 2006. To qualify for the Hot 100, the latest accounts needed to show sales figures in excess of £5m and be profitable. Jobpartners, which has grown on average by 145% over the past four years, was the only HR software developer to appear in the top ten.

"This is a fantastic achievement for Jobpartners and reflects our rapid growth rate since the company was founded in 2000," commented Xavier Marchioni, CEO of Jobpartners. "There is a high market demand for solutions which effectively and successfully support people relationship management processes and we are very well positioned to meet this demand with our solutions. We look forward to continued business growth throughout the rest of 2006 and beyond."

Jobpartners' range of solutions support people management strategies and processes such as recruitment, internal mobility, performance management, package review, executives and key people management, succession planning and career development. As the leader in its market, Jobpartners continues to develop innovative solutions and has recently launched a new tool, ActiveRewarder, which has been designed to carry out effective Salary Planning and Compensation Management. Clients include Boots, Nike, Superdrug, Xerox, 3 and Portman Building Society.

For further information on the Hot 100, visit <http://www.realbusiness.co.uk/hot100/>.

About Jobpartners

Founded in 2000 and headquartered in London, Jobpartners provides software solutions for qualitative human resources management and People Relationship Management (PRM). The leader in the European market, the company's innovative and straightforward approach provides companies with strategic value by enabling them to establish privileged relationships with new job applicants and current employees. The company's solutions address recruitment issues as well as internal mobility, performance management, executives and key people management, succession planning and career management. With four subsidiaries in Europe, Jobpartners has clients in 45 countries and across all industry sectors. For more information, please visit www.jobpartners.com.