

JOBPARTNERS AND ZUCCHETTI GROUP PARTNER TO OFFER INNOVATIVE INTEGRATED SOLUTION FOR HUMAN CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

New Partnership Will Bring Italian Market the Best in HCM Solutions

London, UK, June 22nd 2006 – Zucchetti Group, the leader of software provider in Italy and Jobpartners, the European leader of software solutions dedicated to the PRM (People Relationship Management) market, today announced that they have signed an important strategic alliance to offer the Italian market an innovative suite of solutions and services for Human Capital Management (HCM). Jobpartners' ActiveSuite family of solutions, which support people relationship management processes including recruitment, mobility, career management, performance management and compensation management, will complement Zucchetti's existing range of HR solutions for complete HR management and payroll applications.

The new integrated suite of HCM solutions and services will enable customers to greatly improve the efficiency and performance of all HR processes from recruitment to payroll processing, to employee attendance to benefits management.

"This is a very exciting partnership which will offer our customers a global, integrated solution from two leading organisations in their field with excellent HR expertise in the Italian market," commented from Bruno Morini, Managing director of Zucchetti Group.

"Human Capital Management is a rapidly growing area in Italy and we are very well positioned to meet the demand for solutions which improve HR efficiency and business performance," confirmed Patrice Barbedette, Founder and Deputy General Manager of Jobpartners.

Among customers who have already implemented solutions from Jobpartners in Italy: Nike, Xerox and Degussa.

Instead among the numerous customers that have chosen HR Zucchetti solution we mention: Adecco, Auchan, Deloitte, Geox, Mc Donald's, Tod's, Benetton and UPS.
